REPUBLICAN VICTORY

They Carry Nearly Every State in the Union.

MAJORITIES NEVER EQUALLED.

New York Carried to the Tune of One Hundred and Fifty Thousand.

TAMMANY BADLY DEFEATED.

The New York Legislature Also Republican by a Good Majority—The Republicans Claim the Next Congress by Two Hundred and Eighteen Members—Gains in Nearly Every State in the Union—Congressman Wilson Defeated by Probably Ten Thousand Majority—W. C. Owens Suffers a Like Fate in the Seventh Kentucky District Where Breckinridge Was a Candidate—How the Various States Went From the Latest Returns.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Republicans have carried New York state by estimated pluralities ranging from 130,000 to 150,000. These figures represent the probable plurality of Levi P. Morton, Republican, for governor, over David B. Hill, Democrat, based upon the vote of New York city and Brooklyn complete and returns from more than one-half of the election districts above the Harlem river.

The total vote for the two leading candidates is considerably in excess of that polled for Flower and Fassett for governor in 1891, in addition to which are the votes cast this year for Everett P. Wheeler, Independent Democrat, which will exceed 20,000. The tremendous Republican sweep in the city and state, it is estimated, has elected 23 Republican congressmen, a gain of 8 over the present representation in congress.

It was the expressed belief of those who were conducting the campaign for the Democrats in the state that depreciated majorities below the Harlem for the party there would be offset by increased majorities above the river's bank for the Democracy. The most sanguine expected that the Democratic party, with Senator Hill at its head, would show recuperation from the vote given for Maynard in 1893. In place of anticipated results comes a sweep of such proportions and from every quarter beyond the highest claims made by the Republicans.

From pluralities ranging from 85,000 to 120,000 in the district below Harlem for the Democratic party, the Republican party turns the city vote into 20,000 plurality for its state candidates. In all the Democrats' estimates given on the eve of election it was contended that the Democratic plurality below the Harlem would be at least 35,000. The surprises are not confined to this change of votes, but an analysis shows that Senator Hill will run behind even the vote of Maynard, while in the state he fell below the vote cast for Governor Flower in 1891. An analysis of such figures as are now obtainable shows that the Republican party alone gained by the increased registration, for Mr. Morton's vote in all the upper county districts shows large gains over the Fassett vote of 1891. In the cities this same increase in registration appears to have been detrimental to the Democrats.

The vote in Albany county was one of the many surprises of the election. For years Albany county, on state or national issues, has been looked upon as a reliable Democratic stronghold, good for from 1,000 to 2,000 Democratic majority. The Democratic managers, in view of this fact, and that it is also the home of Senator Hill, looked for a majority not less than 3,500. They felt confident that Senator Hill could be given a handsome vote, as Judge Maynard carried the county by a normal Democratic majority, notwithstanding the Republican trend in other portions of the state.

Albany city complete gives: Hill, 11,486; Morton, 10,517; Wheeler, 85; Lookwood, 11,043; Saxton, 10,560; Brown, 11,589; Haight, 10,510.

In Monroe, with its Republican city of Rochester, the natural Republican plurality was almost doubled, late figures giving Morton 8,000, where in 1891 the same county only gave to Fassett 3,800.

Rennsalr county, the home of Senator Murphy, held closely to Democratic normal vote as any in the state. The county only fell off about 800, while its neighbor, Albany, lost about 2,000.

Erie county repeated its record of last year by giving the usual Republican majorities.

Otsego county doubled for Morton the majority it gave Harrison and trebled that it gave Fassett.

Chemung held pretty closely to its normal vote, especially in Elmira city. St. Lawrence county crawled up over 3,000 on its Fassett vote in favor of Morton.

Westchester falls into line with a big majority for Morton and Niagara county trebles its Fassett plurality.

The results of the sweeping victory are more far-reaching than simply the election of the Republican state ticket. While the returns are very incomplete on the election amendments it is highly probable, according to the first returns, that all of them are adopted.

The percentage of loss as compared with the vote for the head of the ticket is not nearly so large as it was supposed to be, and the result therefore is that the legislature will consist of 50 senators and 150 assemblymen, that pool selling or races will be prohibited and that a new judiciary system will be inaugurated. The sweep also means that for the first time in many years the Republicans will have control of the state legislature and at the same time have a governor in the chair in harmony with them.

The indications are that the New York congressional delegation will be 24 Republicans and 11 Democrats, a gain of nine for the Republicans. The changes are in the Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eleventh, Thirteenth, Fifteenth and Thirty-second congressional districts. The last is the one at present represented by Lockwood.

NEW YORK CITY.

Tammany Defeated by an Overwhelming Majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Tammany is defeated. The nominal majority of 60,000 usually polled by that organization in New York city has been obliterated and an opposition non-partisan majority of 40,000 to 45,000 has been piled up, making the net opposition gain more than 100,000. Never since 1871, the year in which the revelations concerning the operations of Tweed were made, has there been such an opposition arrayed against Tammany, and the returns show that a severe blow has been struck at the foundation of the most powerful local political organization in the country.

Returns from New York city complete give Hill 127,700; Morton, 133,200. Hill's plurality, 4,401. Mayor—Grant, Democrat, 111,257; Strong, Republican, 152,091. Strong's plurality, 41,484. John W. Goff, Independent, has been elected recorder over Frederick Smythe, Tammany, by a plurality of 14,844.

From 3,898 out of 3,359 election districts outside of New York and Kings give Hill, 230,488; Morton, 334,585; Wheeler, 4,082. The same election districts in 1891 gave Flower, 252,808; Fassett, 278,597.

Wilson Defeated.

WHEELING, Nov. 7.—At 11:15 p. m. the Republican state central committee claims that Wilson is defeated for congress by 10,000. They also claim that Huling, Republican in this district, is elected by a safe majority. Dovernour, Republican, carries the First congressional district.

PENNSYLVANIA.

The State Goes Republican and Wilson is Defeated.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—Returns from the entire state give Hastings an estimated plurality of 212,604, the greatest Republican majority ever achieved in this state. In 1892 Harrison's plurality in Pennsylvania was 63,747 and Hastings gain over this vote is 148,917. Complete returns will undoubtedly swell Hastings' plurality above 340,000 as many of the correspondents were very conservative in their estimates. Not one county in the state showed a Democratic gain. Returns were necessarily late because of the heavy vote polled.

In this city Republican Congressmen Bynghum, Harmer, Reyburn and Adams are re-elected by increased majorities. The Democrats lose their congressman from the Third district, formerly represented by Samuel J. Randall; Frederick Halderman, Republican, defeating Joseph P. McCullen, Democrat, by about 4,000 majority.

In the Twenty-fourth district E. R. Acheson, Republican, has defeated W. A. Sipe, Democrat, by 6,500.

In the Twenty-sixth district Matthew Griswold, Republican, elected.

Advices from Erie show that Sibley also has been defeated by a good sized majority.

The indications at this hour are that every congressman in western Pennsylvania elected is Republican.

MICHIGAN.

Republicans Carry Everything by About 60,000 Plurality.

DETROIT, Nov. 7.—Michigan has gone Republican by about 60,000 plurality. The Republican state central committee claim it will exceed that figure, while Secretary Hosford of the Democratic committee concedes the Republican plurality to be 50,000.

The Republicans have also elected every one of the 12 congressmen from Michigan, notwithstanding the division of districts by what they allege to have been a Democratic gerrymander. Perhaps the greatest surprise to the Democrats was the election of Spaulding, Republican, over Barkworth, Democrat and Populist, in the Second district by over 2,600 plurality. The legislature will be about four-fifths Republican in both branches.

Michigan congressmen elected are as follows, all being Republicans: First district, John B. Corliss; Second, George Spaulding; Third, Julius C. Burrows; Fourth, Henry F. Thomas; Fifth, William Alden Smith; Sixth, David D. Aitken; Seventh, Horace G. Snover; Eighth, William S. Linton; Ninth, R. P. Bishop; Tenth, R. O. Crump; Eleventh, John Avery; Twelfth, Samuel Stephenson.

KENTUCKY.

W. C. Owens Probably Defeated in the Breckinridge District.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 7. — The vote throughout Kentucky was well polled, and the congressional races in the Fifth, Third, Ninth and Eleventh districts were hotly contested. Returns up to the present indicate that Hon. John K. Hendrick, Democrat, wins in the First by a safe majority. John D. Clardy, Democrat, in the Second; C. U. McElroy, Democrat, by 300 in the Third, over Hunter, Republican; A. B. Montgomery in the Fourth by 1,000.

In the Fifth, the Louisville district, the race between E. J. McDermott, Democrat, and Walter Evans, Republican, is very close. The usual Democratic majority of 5,000 being reduced to a few hundred, if the Republican candidate is not elected. Republicans claim gross frauds here and will contest the result if defeated.

A. S. Berry, Democrat, wins in the Sixth district.

The returns from the Seventh district (Ashland district) show that Judge George Denny, Jr., Republican, is elected over W. C. Owens, Democrat, by from 100 to 300 majority. Owens men think Denny is the winner. The official count will have to be made before any bets are paid, as the contest is very close.

James B. McCreary, Democrat, wins over Roberts, Republican, in the Eighth.

In the Ninth the race is very close between Rolla K. Hart, Democrat, and S. J. Pugh, Republican.

J. M. Kendall and W. M. Breckner, Democrats, will take the long and short terms in the Tenth.

In the Eleventh the closest race of the state is between D. G. Colson and Silas Adams, Republicans, and George Stone, Democrat. Up to this time the returns do not indicate the result there.

INDIANA.

The Democrats' Only Hope For Saving Four Congressmen.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 7.—Full returns from any one congressional district have not been received here. Indications point to an overwhelming Republican triumph in the state. The Republican state committee claims for Owens from 30,000 to 35,000 majority over his opponent, Myers, for secretary of state, 13 congressmen and both branches of the legislature.

Democrats concede 20,000 Republican majority, but think that they will save four congressmen—Brotz in the Second, Stockslager in the Third, Holman in the Fourth and McNagny in the Twelfth.

Minnesota.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 7.—It is simply a question of the size of the Republican plurality in this state, with a strong indication that it might prove to be a majority. Twenty thousand was the first figure at 10 o'clock, but it has slowly mounted till it is now placed at 30,000 and may reach 40,000. Governor Nelson's chief competitor seems to have been S. M. Owen, Populist, for whom many Democrats deserted their candidate. The rest of the state ticket, with the possible exception of John W. Wallis, Democrat-Populist, for associate justice, has also been elected by a big vote. The congressional delegation will consist of five and possibly seven Republicans. Little or no thing has been heard from the legislature, but it seems strongly Republican, assuring Senator Washburn's re-election.

Nebraska.

OMAHA, Nov. 7.—Returns received up to 11 o'clock indicate the election of Holcomb, Republican, for governor by from 5,000 to 10,000 plurality. As to the congressional delegation little actual details are known, but from comparisons carefully made on other votes and deducting impartially from returns of the three state central committees the delegation stand thus, with little prospect of change: First district, Jesse Strode, Republican; Second, D. H. Mercer, Republican; Third, George Meikeljohn, Republican; Fourth, E. J. Hainer, Republican; Fifth, William McKeighan, Democrat; Sixth, O. M. Kem, Democrat. This is a gain of one from Bryan's district for the Republicans.

Colorado.

DENVER, Nov. 7.—Republicans claim the election of McIntyre for governor by 20,000 plurality. The Populists do not concede the defeat of Waite, although they admit that this (Arapahoe county) will give a Republican majority of 7,500 on the head of the state ticket. The composition of the new legislature is not yet known, but the indications are that it will be Republican, in which event Senator Wolcott will probably be re-elected. Congressman Pence is undoubtedly beaten in the First district by Shafroth, Republican. The Second is in doubt, with the chances favoring Bell, Populist.

Rhode Island.

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 7.—Complete returns have not been received from either of the congressional districts in Rhode Island, but the figures at hand leave no doubt of the success of Bull, Republican, over Lapham, Democrat, in the First district, and Arnold, Republican, over Garvin, Democrat, in the Second district. The receipt of returns from various towns is much hampered by the prostration of the wires on account of the storm, but all the returns received have the Republican trend, indicated in the dispatches from other states.

Connecticut.

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 7.—Returns as far as obtainable from all parts of the state at midnight indicate that Connecticut has experienced a great Republican landslide. This city has gone Republican, Pigott, the Democratic candidate for congress, who had a majority of over 3,000 last year, is defeated probably by 1,000 majority by N. D. Sperry. Coffin, the Republican candidate for governor, has about the same majority. The town elects two Republican representatives to the legislature, and the senatorial districts elect a Republican.

Mississippi.

JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 7.—Returns from all districts of the state show that the seven Democratic congressmen have been elected by good majorities. The Populists had a nominee in every district, and the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Seventh made a vigorous campaign. Hawthorne, Populist in the Sixth, made large gains over the last election. In the other districts the populists appear to have lost strength. The four Prohibition candidates out practically no figure. A very light vote was polled.

Idaho.

BOISE, Ida., Nov. 7.—The election passed off quietly in this state so far as heard from. Interest everywhere is great and it is thought a very large vote has been polled. There are no figures obtainable. Both Democrats and Republicans claim the governorship. The Democrats concede the rest of the state ticket, but the Populists have laid claim to the congressmen. It is the opinion of the most conservative men that the state has gone Republican on the state ticket, congressmen and legislature.

Georgia.

ATLANTA, Nov. 7.—The legislature elected Hon. Patrick Walsh, senator for the short term, ending March, 1895, and Hon. Augustus O. Bacon of Bibb county for the long term, beginning March, 1895. In the state congressional elections all the Democrats are elected. There was no uneasiness felt in any but the Fourth, Seventh, Ninth and Tenth districts and in each of those districts Democrats were elected by decisive majorities.

Tennessee.

NASHVILLE, Nov. 7.—Incomplete returns indicate the election of McMillin, Democrat; Richardson, Democrat; Washington, Democrat; Cox, Democrat, and McDearmon, Democrat, to congress. Snodgrass, Democrat, in the Third district, is in danger of defeat, and nothing positive yet heard from Enloe, Eighth district. At Democratic headquarters it is admitted that the race for governor in this state is unpleasantly close for Turney, Democrat.

South Carolina.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 7.—There is no doubt that Evans, Democrat, will be elected governor by a large majority. At this hour it is doubtful whether the vote will be in favor of the calling of a constitutional convention. Democrats will be elected to congress in all districts unless it is in the First where Elliott, ex-member and Democrat, is running against Murray, present negro congressman from that district.

New Hampshire.

CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 7.—Returns from New Hampshire were never more surely, but those received show Republican majorities. Less than one-quarter of the state has been reported, but the returns at hand indicate that Bussiel will have at least 6,000 lead over Kent. The election of two Republican congressmen is conceded, and the legislature will be Republican by probably 75.

Four wards in Manchester show a net Republican gain of 579.

Alabama.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 7.—The returns from the election in this state indicate the election of all the Democratic nominees with the possible except on of Denson, in the Seventh, which, at present, seems to be in doubt. The Republicans are very active in the Fourth and Ninth districts, but Robbins and Underwood have good majorities in the Fifth. Cobb defeats Goodwin, leader of the Populists.

North Dakota.

FARGO, N. D., Nov. 7.—Returns coming in unusually slow. Returns so far show Allin, Republican, for governor, running ahead of the ticket. The Republicans gain in Fargo, Grand Forks, Bismarck and all other large towns, while in some country precincts the Populists gain slightly. Allin's election by 5,000 plurality is claimed by the Republican central committee. The Democrats conceded it by 1,000

Wyoming.

CHEYENNE, Nov. 7.—The weather throughout the state was fair, and a full vote was polled. The indications are that the full Republican state and a majority of the Republican legislature are elected, insuring the election of two Republican United States senators.

Massachusetts.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—The story of the Massachusetts election can be briefly told. Governor Greenhalge is re-elected by a majority of more than 40,000. According to the latest returns 12 out of the 13 congressmen are Republicans. The state legislature is Republican both branc'

THE ENTIRE TICKET ELECTED.

Republicans Claim Seventeen of the Twenty-One Congressmen With Two Still in Doubt—Names of Those That Are Sure Winners—The Latest Returns From the Different Districts.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 7.—Ohio has broken her record on Republican pluralities. The largest plurality heretofore was when John Brough, Republican, for governor in 1863, had 101,000 over Clement L. Vallandingham, Democrat, the latter being exiled at the time in Canada.

Last year Governor McKinley carried the state by over 80,000, but no such plurality had been previously known except in the noted Brough-Vallandingham canvass, when all the Ohio soldiers in the fields and hospitals of the south voted. At that time over 40,000 soldiers outside of the state voted for Brough and less than 1,000 for Vallandingham.

During the last 20 years the parties have alternated in carrying the state, the Democrats electing Governor Bishop in 1877, Governor Hoadley in 1880. While the Republicans claim a plurality for Secretary of State Taylor of 125,000 to 130,000, the Democrats concede that the Republicans have made large gains over the McKinley vote of last year and possibly beaten the Brough high water mark of 1863.

On the basis of the state vote, the Republicans claim 19 of the 21 congressmen, the present Ohio delegation in congress consisting of 11 Democrats and 10 Republicans.

Congressmen were elected as follows:

First district—Charles P. Taft, Republican.

Second—J. H. Bromwell, Republican.

Third—A. L. Harris, Republican.

Fourth—W. D. Davis, Republican.

Fifth—P. B. Dewitt, Republican.

Sixth—George W. Hulick, Republican.

Seventh—George W. Wilson, Republican.

Eighth—L. M. Strong, Republican.

Ninth—J. S. Southard, Republican.

Tenth—L. J. Fenton, Republican.

Eleventh—C. H. Grosvenor, Republican.

Thirteenth—S. R. Harris, Republican.

Fourteenth—W. S. Keer, Republican.

Fifteenth—H. C. Van Vorhis, Republican.

Sixteenth—Lorenzo Danford, Republican.

Seventeenth—A. S. McClure, Republican.

Eighteenth—R. W. Taylor, Republican.

Nineteenth—S. A. Northway, Republican.

Twentieth—C. B Reach, Republican.

The results are in doubt in the Twelfth district, between Outhwaite, Democrat, and Watson, Republican, and in the Twenty-first between Johnson, Democrat, and Burton, Republican. The Republicans claim the election of Watson and Burton. Coxey cut no figure in the Eighteenth district as the Populist candidate.

Chairman Dick gave out the following from Republican headquarters:

"If the present ratio of Republican gains continues the Republicans will carry Ohio by at least 125,000. The election of 17 congressmen is assured, with the other four districts to hear from, in at least two of which the Republicans are hopeful."

Chairman Thurman at Democratic state headquarters states that he does not dispute Chairman Dick's claim and he will not be surprised if the Democrats loose all the Ohio districts.

South Dakota.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Nov. 7.—Returns from South Dakota show Republican gain at nearly all points. Returns are coming in very slow and results of legislature will hardly be known before tomorrow, but meager returns being received from country districts. Republicans claim election of entire state ticket and congressmen.

Louisiana.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 7.—The returns so far show almost to a certainty the re-election of the previous congressional delegation from Louisiana by about 5,000 majority each in the First, Third, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth districts and the election of Charles F. Buck in the Second district by a large majority, to succeed Davy.

IT SNOWED

It snowed to-day.

It also snowed yesterday The character of yesterday's snow storm was a matter of greater interest to the Democracy than that of to-day's. From all over Ohio comes the information that the Democracy are buried beneath an avalanche of white-winged ballots never before equalled in the history of Ohio politics Even in rock ribbed Allen county the Democracy have gone down in the general slump and the entire ticket is defeated. The vote polled was very light, in some precincts the stay-at-home votes reaching over an hundred.

The latest returns show the entire Republican State ticket elected by an astonishing majority; that three Democratic congressmen are elected, they being Sorg, Richards and Layton, although all by greatly reduced majorities; that Judge Norris is defeated for circuit judge and J. L. Price elected; that Judge Mooney is elected The county ticket is defeated by a few hundred votes.

The causes that contributed to the party's defeat need not be enumerated. We are defeated. Let us make the defeat work to the advantage of the Democracy. An occasional defeat unites a party and cements it together. The Democracy should now commence a thorough work of reorganization and get themselves ready for the campaign of 1895.

Professor Ely Defines His Position.

Writing in The Forum, Professor Richard T. Ely says that a scientific person dislikes creeds. Therefore when he, taking it for granted that his fellow countrymen consider him scientific, is asked, "What is your creed?" he answers, "I have no creed." But he certainly has "views" enough to amply make up for the lack.

He says that strikes are a necessary evil. But the old fashioned trades union strikes are out of date and ineffective because the conditions that made them formerly successful have so changed. Labor organizations must now change their methods to meet the changed conditions. He thinks that it is a very great mistake to try to square economic questions in America with the old political economy doctrines and textbooks of Europe. Our writers on economic subjects have been too exclusively under the influence of English thought " We must now reconstruct ourselves and make a political economy of our own to suit the industrial situation of America at the close of the nineteenth century However one may differ from Professor Ely in the main, it is certain that every thoughtful American will agree with him as to the necessity of our working out our own economic science.

One of the greatest problems before us is to find the right way to manage industries which constitute the so called natural monopolies. These are gas and waterworks, electric light plants, railways, telegraphs, telephones, street cars, highways, etc.—in brief, all the industries in which all the people are interested necessarily Should they be owned out and out by the government or should they be in the hands of private owners with the government—national, state or municipal—having a partial control over them?

In regard to these monopolistic undertakings Professor Ely lays the following principle down. He says we must accept it whether we like it or not: "The force operating to bring under the control of government the relations between employed and employers in the case of monopolistic undertakings is like a law of nature which will override all opposition." It is evident that Professor Ely leans toward government ownership of natural monopolies, though he puts plainly before his readers the difficulties in the way of this. We must develop our politics beyond the spoils system before even this way out can be successful.

South Carolina Liquor Law.

Governor Tillman and his supporters have shown a power of administrative and legislative finessing worthy of a Talleyrand. The supreme court of South Carolina pronounced the dispensary law of 1893 unconstitutional. Governor Tillman at once by proclamation closed all his dispensaries then in obedience to the decision. But meantime, as if in anticipation of the supreme court's course, the South Carolina legislature repealed the act of 1892 and passed another similar one. This Governor Tillman did not attempt to enforce until more than six months had elapsed. On July 31, this year, the term of one of the judges hostile to the dispensary law expired. In South Carolina all except probate judges are elected by the legislature. That body immediately put Lieutenant Governor Eugene B. Gary into the vacant judgeship This gave a majority of the judges in favor of the state dispensary law. The supreme court then decided that the new law passed in 1893 is constitutional. State dispensaries are therefore in full swing again.

One ground on which the old law was pronounced unconstitutional was that the state has no right to engage in trade. Judge Gary decides that the state must protect its citizens, thereby necessitating that it do, in a measure, police service. Intoxicants are hurtful and dangerous to the morals of the state; therefore the state has the right to regulate the sale. The act of 1893 is therefore a police measure.

Under the new law a state commissioner of liquors is appointed by the governor. He purchases all liquors to be sold in the state, and a state chemist must test them to be sure that they are pure. A state board of liquor control designates the county dispensers. The commissioner attaches to every package of liquor he buys a tag or certificate, and this must go with the package everywhere it is shipped. The absence of such certificate is taken as evidence that the liquor is contraband. Under a proper warrant a constable may search suspected houses at any time to find whether contraband drinks are there. The dispensaries are open from 8 to 6. The packages contain drinks in quantity from five gallons to a half pint and must under no circumstances be opened on the premises where they are sold. Half the profits from the sales go to the state, the other half to the county and town in which the dispensary is situated.

Holding Offices Down.

Mr. W. H. Pugh has been legislated out of office as commissioner of customs at Washington and transferred to a new office as superintendent of the income tax division. His salary when he was commissioner of customs was $4,000. His salary as income tax superintendent will be $4,250.

Now that he has made his last bow to the public as a customs officer Mr. Pugh does not mind letting some light in on his late business. It seems from his report that there are in this United States at least 50 customs offices that ought to be abolished on the spot. All the collectors do at those points is to keep their office chairs warm at government expense.

In the 50 offices which Mr. Pugh names in his report there were no transactions last year, none at all. Most of the ports where there are offices at which no business is done are in the southern states. They are scattered over 16 states altogether, however. Here is a matter in which congress might economize to the extent of many thousand dollars a year if it were disposed. But a bill for the abolishment of 50 useless offices would have to pass the senate The senators, who have the confirming power, will not do away with the useless offices and turn their constituents out in the cold—no, not to save $50,000 a year, it is said.

This has been a bad year for the United States fish commission, owing to the heat and drought of the summer. For all that, however, it has planted on the coasts and in the interior of this country no less than 600,000,000 young fish. Of these 100,000,000 were shad and another 100,000,000 were whitefish. The increase in the quantity as well as the excellent quality of shad has been noted in the markets in the past few years. It is to be hoped that the price will soon become such that the shad season will mean satisfaction to the poor as to the well to do. The delicate whitefish of the northern lakes is not, however, increasing in numbers, in spite of the pains taken by the fish commission to stock the waters which are its haunts. The whitefish supplies the whole vast interior of the country with its best water food. The demand is increasing rapidly, and the facilities for catching whitefish have increased in proportion. Redoubled exertions will be necessary on the part of both state and national hatcheries to keep up the supply of whitefish.

In England they have screwed the milkman down to the point where it is easier to be honest than to cheat. A quart milk bottle has been devised with a graduated scale blown into the glass, with the words "average," "good" and "very good." Cream will rise on the top of the milk to one or another of these words. Thus the customer will at least know whether he has got his due quantity and whether the milkman is giving him skimmilk or watered milk.

How many of all that ride the bicycle know who invented it? His name was Pierre Michaud, and he was a Frenchman. The invention was made in 1861. A monument has lately been erected to Michaud in Bar le Duc, France, his native home. Queerly enough, the monument consists of a naked bronze boy leaning upon a bicycle, there being connected with it as a memorial a Greek marble temple. Maybe the designer meant to imply that the boy had ridden his wheel to church.

A Splendid Free Offer.

There are thousands of people who, while not exactly sick, are out of order or ailing in some way. They don't feel well and can't understand what the trouble is. You can learn exactly what ails you, without its costing anything, by writing a letter to the noted and successful specialist, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th St., New York City, and telling him just how you feel. He will answer it, explaining every symptom in your case and telling just what to do to get well. He gives most careful attention to every letter, and makes his explanations so clear that you understand exactly what the matter is, and how to cure it. And all this costs you nothing.

He makes a specialty of treating patients through letter correspondence, and this method has proved wonderfully successful. His vast experience enables him to understand from reading the symptoms, the exact nature of your complaint. He is the discoverer of that wonderful preparation, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, the best nerve medicine in the world. People living at a distance from the city will at once see the great advantage of this system. No long journey and no doctor's fee. Write him and it will probably be the means of your getting strong and well.

It can always be depended upon. When reduced with water it is pleasant to take. For sale by H. F. Vortkamp, druggist, 140 North Main street.

French Toast.

Take pieces of stale bread and dip them into sweetened milk until they are quite moist (if they become too soft they will break). Then dip them into the yellow of an egg well beaten. Heat butter in a frying pan, and when very hot set the pieces of bread in it, then fry till they are a nice brown. When done, place on a hot platter and scatter cinnamon and sugar over the bread, and serve while hot. This is a great improvement on the old way of frying bread, as there is so little grease about it.

MYSTERIES OF MEDICINE.

Doctors Know What Drugs Will Do, but Not Why They Do It.

"When a person takes a dose of medicine," said a doctor, "he never stops to consider what a wonderful provider nature is. When you consider that we are able to give drugs which will go though the entire system without having any effect upon any part or organ until it comes perhaps to some nerve upon which it expends all its force, it is indeed a miracle of the most wonderful kind. We don't know why it does it, but we know what it does. The progress in materia medica has been wonderful. By provings the specific effects of drugs have been discovered, so that they can be given with specific results. Medicine is gradually emerging from the dark valley of guesswork into the bright sunlight of science.

"The modern physician does not make a mixture of seven or eight drugs, hoping that some one of them will produce the effect desired. He does not take chances upon striking a remedy one in seven. He knows now just what drug will produce the results he wants, and he prescribes that. I attended a man the other day who had not been sick for 20 or 30 years. I went into his room, and after observing his symptoms asked for half a glass of water, into which I dropped a small pellet, a triturate. The old man looked at me after I had given him a dose of it and then smiled.

"'Well, doctor,' he said, 'you treated me for this complaint when I was sick many years ago, and I must say the remembrance of the taste of the medicine you gave me then is still vivid. I don't think that a person could have mixed a more horrible concoction than that was. Now you treat me for the same disease, and the drug is almost tasteless. How do you account for that?'

"'Progress,' I replied. And progress it is! Every day increases our knowledge of drugs and our power to alleviate suffering and save human life."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

SYMMES' HOLE UP TO DATE.

A Call For Volunteers to Go to the Long Lost Babylonians In It.

That the crust of the earth is formed in layers no one will dispute, and that all substance on the surface of the earth is drawn by some force toward the earth's center is also undeniable. This is called centripetal force To admit the existence of this force is equal to the admission of a counteracting force called centrifugal.

According to every experiment and all philosophical reasoning, there must be a line of equilibrium drawn somewhere between the center and the circumference of the earth. The exact location of this line will always be determined by the motion of the earth. It is on this line that the external and the internal forces meet in deadly conflict, striving for gravitatious power and the enforcement of their laws The friction produced by these two forces must be the source of all internal heat and the eternal fire. It is these two opposing forces that form and sustain the immense balance wheel called "the earth," which is 25,000 miles in circumference, but cannot exceed 200 miles in thickness, including the lava belt in the center.

The irregular motion of the earth will change the central line of gravity and cause an eruption of lava either external or internal. The earth when viewed as a whole is a unit, and so are the laws which operate it, whether applied to the external or the internal surface.

The law which reverses gravitation on this equalizing line has given us two earths in one, a world within a world. The friction and heat of the earth at the equator are so much greater than they are at the poles that the law of electric equilibrium will produce an electric current to meet the demand for light and heat.

This internal earth is a counterpart of the external in all things, except its Atlantic and Pacific are not quite so vast, and its Nile and its Amazon are not quite so long. Neither is its equator nor its zones nor its poles quite so high. Nature, with an impartial hand, has withheld no good thing from this new world that can be tasted of by any other. Humanity here is as far removed from Darwin as Darwin is removed from the chosen seed of Adam's race.

AMUSING THE QUEEN.

How Maids of Honor Are Selected and Some of Their Duties.

Maids of honor are chosen by the queen herself from among the daughters of peers, who, if not themselves connected with the royal household, are personal friends of her majesty. A letter is always sent to the parents of the young lady requesting that as a personal favor to the queen she may be permitted to attend at court. As the position is undeniable and the salary is £300 a year, the request is invariably accepted, and the newly chosen maid receives from the lord chamberlain the command for her first "wait."

The first thing brought to the maid of honor is her badge, which is a miniature picture of the queen set in brilliants and hung from a ribbon. Just before the dinner hour the maid of honor in waiting has to stand in the corridor outside the queen's private apartments. She carries a bouquet, which on entering the dining room she lays at the right hand of the queen's plate.

The maid of honor sits at dinner next to the gentleman on the queen's right. This rule is, however, relaxed when royal guests are present. After dinner, unless otherwise commanded, the maid of honor retires to her own room, whence however, she is frequently called to read, sing, play the piano or take a hand at cards.

As regards this last, the household have always to be provided with freshly coined money, for the queen is not supposed to handle money which has ever been in circulation.—New York Advertiser.

ALBERT MOORE AND HIS ART.

A Sketch of a Career That Was an Ornament to English Art Circles.

The chronicle of Albert Moore's late career in England is simply the story of a painter who, devoted heart and soul to his art, kept his affections centered in his studio and lived only to dream of and to create new forms of beauty. Year by year the records of his achievements were inscribed in the catalogues of the academy, the Grosvenor and the New galleries, and all who loved the simple expression of beauty upon canvas and could value the efforts of an artist who neither imitated nor had imitators to deliver the soul that was in him and to utter his own thoughts came to acknowledge the witchery of his power in color, graceful lines and poetical suggestiveness.

The land in which his fancy dwelt and the women he imagined for us have little in common with the hurly burly of today and the human beings we meet upon the streets. It is a land of languorous delights and soft airs, where no jarring note is ever struck and the shadow of death is quite unknown. It is perhaps an impossible land, but when we are "weighed down with heaviness and utterly consumed with sharp distress" there may be for a few among us at least some power of healing and distraction in the poet painter's beautiful imaginings. They preach no more—and let us be thankful for it—but under any circumstances and at all times they are pleasant and restful to the eye.

All Albert Moore's work is decorative I write the word "decorative" with great reluctance. In these latter days it has been spoiled with "all ignoble use" and stinks in the nostrils of every honest critic. When a picture has in it neither correct drawing nor good color, when its most pronounced quality is its eccentricity, when it is banal and brainless, there are always good natured friends in abundance to declare, "Well, at least decorative!"

Once upon a time a bad old Scotsman died, and as is the custom some acquaintances assembled around the coffin to look at "the remains." The man had been so bad that no one there was hypocrite enough to be able to utter one word of praise of the dead. But custom demanded some scrap of commendation, and one old graybeard got out of the difficulty by asserting that "onyway Tam is a rale quiet corpse." So, when a picture is in every way bad it seems the fashion now to say, "Onyway it's decorative!" The phrase does not necessarily mean anything.

But there is decorative work and decorative work, and Moore's is decorative in the true sense of the word. His lines and his composition have always grace in them and quiet dignity of style —Robert Walker.

STRANGE HILL THIS.

A Bicycle Will Not Run Down It, but Goes Up Easily.

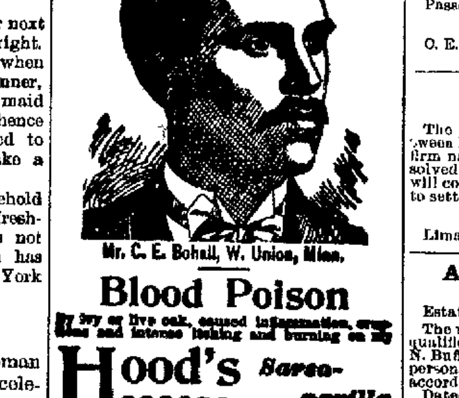

"There is a hill in Ulster county that bicycle riders find no difficulty in ascending on their wheels, but which their machines won't descend by their own gravity," said a New York wheelman. This mysterious hill is the last one of the numerous hills on the route between Lake Mohonk and the Hudson river.

The moment he takes his feet off the pedals to let the machine toboggan down by force of gravity it slows up and begins to wabble, and if its rider doesn't brace up and take it in hand and foot again it will topple over and tumble him in the ditch. He has to work the wheel for all he is worth to get it down the hill. On the contrary, the wheel will mount the hill with less effort on the part of the wheelman to propel it than it requires ordinarily to move it along on the level.

The theory is that there must be a big mass of magnetic ore under the surface near the top of the hill which influences the action of the bicycles. However that may be, the fact exists that here is a hill that a bicycle won't run down of its own gravity, and which the wheelman can mount as easily, if not more easily, than he can ride the level road.—New York Sun.

Dodo on the Wheel.

Mrs Asquith, Miss Margot Tennant that was, and "Dodo" who still is, in spite of her disclaimers, has developed a craze for wheeling and is counted one of the best woman riders in England. Her chief rival is the beautiful Lady de Grey, the six foot widow of Lord Lonsdale, who married some years ago the heir of a noble house and abandoned the rather rapid set to which she belonged. Lady de Grey's extreme height, combined with great beauty, has always made her conspicuous in the world she frequents, and now that she has become an accomplished bicycle rider people have plenty to say about her.

The November Calendar

Are you willing to spend 15 minutes upon the calendar at which you will gaze every day for the next 30 days? If so try this with the November calendar:

Tear off the November leaf—this is taking for granted that it is a plain one. Paste the leaf upon a square of card board. Now, if you are in a hurry to get through with it, just gather a double handful of bright autumn leaves and fasten them in little sprays upon the card-board to form a frame. Tack the calendar in place and it will serve as a pretty reminder through this, the melancholy month of the year.

Perhaps you like to take your time at decorative work. Then paste the leaf upon celluloid. With a paint brush outline rosy leaves, intermixed with green, and make a dainty painted trifle—useful as well. A picture of yourself fastened upon a corner of the celluloid square may have a frame of sketched leaves that somehow in their painted wanderings seem to frame the calendar also. This frame can form the basis for another month's decoration.—New York Sun.

DEMENTED.

A Crazy Girl from New Hampshire Cared for by the Police.

Day before yesterday a poorly clad young girl was found sitting on the Pierce street bridge, which spans Hog creek She was suffering from the cold and would address the pedestrians who passed, in a meaningless manner, which indicated that she was demented Chief Haller, who was notified, took charge of her and, after learning that she belonged in New Hampshire, Auglaize county, gave her into the charge of the city trustees, who took her to Ohler House, intending to leave her there until her relatives or the authorities of Auglaize county could be notified She seemed perfectly satisfied to remain at the hotel, and was not confined to any particular room Yesterday she disappeared from the hotel and wasn't seen again until the police found her wandering about the streets again late last night She was again taken to the Ohler House and will be sent to Wapakoneta this evening

Her name is Viola Kendall, and she has parents living in New Hampshire, but she will probably be taken to the Auglaize county infirmary

Steve Brodie in "On the Bowery"

The action opens in the rich speculator's uptown residence, continues at Steve Brodie's place on the Bowery, moves thence to Brooklyn Bridge, shifts to an East River wharf, thence to Chatham Square and ends where it began Every act passes at night

The play involves besides the personages already mentioned, a number ber of typical characters of the Bowery and these contribute to the drama's element of comedy Steve Brodie personates himself as he is in every day life and his jump from Brooklyn Bridge is a thrilling incident of the play

She is Progressing.

One of the great manufactories of household furniture in Grand Rapids, Mich, employs a woman as chief designer of artistic furniture and pays her a handsome salary She employs two or three girls as assistants Another woman holds a similar position in the service of a great stove company in Detroit The Studebaker carriage builders in South Bend Ind., employ a woman artist to do the delicate ornamental painting on the vehicles they make. A woman is steward and purser of a steamer running between Grand Haven and Chicago. There are several women who own and manage livery stables in western cities, and women farmers and women cattle kings are numerous in all western states There are also many women engaged in fruit culture One of the finest vineyards in Iowa is owned and managed by a young woman ex schoolteacher —Philadelphia Ledger

What He Needed.

The man was melancholy, and when he called on the doctor for advice that artist thought he had his man sized up on the first turn He told the doctor his symptoms, and the doctor asked a lot of incidental questions.

"How long have you been here?" inquired the physician after finishing up the regular list.

"Much longer than I have wanted to be," replied the patient wearily

"That's it. I thought so," exclaimed the doctor brightly "What you need is a change of scene."

The patient threw up his hands as if to ward off a blow

"Oh, doctor, he wailed, "I belong to a theatrical company playing a repertory of five act plays."—Detroit Free Press.

Women Bootblacks In Paris.

A New York woman recently in Paris confessed to a great interest in the woman bootblacks whom she saw there 'They wear a peculiar uniform," she says, "not unlike that of the Sisters of Mercy, but their coquettish manners quite nullify the religious association of their dress Most of them work with gloved hands, and they are wonderfully neat and dexterous at their calling"

Victoria as a Shakespearean.

Several years ago a celebrated tragedian was summoned to play "Hamlet" at Windsor When he came to the soliloquy, he made an unusual pause after "To be"— The queen, believing that he had forgotten his lines, instantly prompted —"or not to be That is the question" "By your leave, your majesty,' said the tragedian, put out of courtly humor by the interruption, "that is not the question. The question is my method of interpretation' 'Never mind your method," returned the queen smilingly 'What we want is Shakespeare"—San Francisco Argonaut.

Eggs and Microbes.

Dr McClintock of the University of Michigan has performed experiments which indicate that eggs may become infected with microbes before they are laid. A healthy hen, after repeated washings in sterilized solutions, was placed in a sterilized cage. As soon as possible after being laid a portion of her eggs were placed in sterilized cotton and then in an incubator All these eggs decayed and swarmed with bacteria. The remaining eggs were taken as soon as laid, and cultures were made from their contents. Some of these culture tubes developed, others remained sterile. After some days the hen was killed, and with proper aseptic precautions culture tubes were inoculated from various portions of the oviduct. Most of these tubes developed. It would thus seem probable that the putrefactive bacteria entered the egg in its passage down the oviduct and before the shell was formed.

Bright Baby

"My youngest boy got to crying for the moon the other night" said Mr Boresome "Now wasn't that bright?

"The moon? I suppose it was bright, or he wouldn't have cried for it, said the bachelor friend

"You know I didn't mean it that way I meant that the boy showed his brightness in crying for the moon

'I—I'm dinged if I see it'

'You don't? Why, if he had cried for something that I could have given him, don't you see he would have had to stop crying when I got it for him, and couldn't have finished his crying spell"

And the bachelor friend walked off, musing on the sad state of his old chum's mind

W A McGuire, a well known citizen of McKay, Ohio, is of the opinion that there is nothing as good for children troubled with colds or croup as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy He has used it in his family for several years with the best results and always keeps a bottle of it in the house After having la grippe he was himself troubled with a severe cough He used other remedies without benefit and then concluded to try the children's medicine and to his delight it soon effected a permanent cure 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by H F Vortkamp, druggist 140 North Main street

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

The One Injured

Minnie—Did you hear about Mollie's fiancee falling off the trolley car and breaking his arm?

Mamie—Yes I wonder if he will sue the company for damages?

Minnie—I guess not I shouldn't wonder if she does, though
